I wanted to alert everyone in Calgary about a special opportunity to get your company's message heard. If you are entrepreneurial and could benefit from investment and national TV exposure, please read on. The CBC has a show called the Dragons' Den and it is properly defined and talked about at length in Kempton Lam's Blog. Kempton and some of our other local Bloggers are getting the word out that auditions for the show will be held on April 20th and 21st right here in Calgary, it is a wonderful opportunity that shouldn't be missed.

Please have a look at Kempton's Blog for more information on this rare event, <http://kempton.wordpress.com/tag/dragons-den/>.

Following is an excerpt from a CBC announcement:

DRAGONS' DEN IS BACK FOR SEASON TWO!

Auditions heat up in Calgary on April 20th and 21st 2007

Auditions are taking place in Calgary for season two of DRAGONS' DEN, returning this fall on CBC Television. The show gives aspiring entrepreneurs the opportunity to pitch their ideas to a panel of wealthy businesspeople otherwise known as the Dragons on national television. The prize is real cash and real investment, from the Dragons' own pockets. The Dragons have agreed to invest their own money in the best ideas.

If you think you have the next great business venture, come out and audition and test your pitching skills! No idea is too small!

CBC Television will be holding auditions on Friday, April 20th and Saturday April 21st from 10am a.m. to 4 p.m., at CBC Calgary, 1724 Westmount Blvd. N.W. Calgary, Alta. T2N 3G7

If you convince us that your concept is ready for the limelight, you could qualify to be on Dragons' Den. No experience is necessary. For this round, be prepared to make a pitch in five minutes or less. We will consider any idea—from underwear to dipping oils to energy saving ideas, as long as it can make money!
